SENIOR

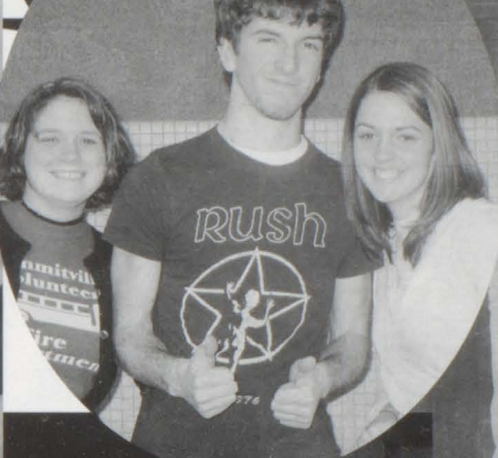

★ Class of 2006

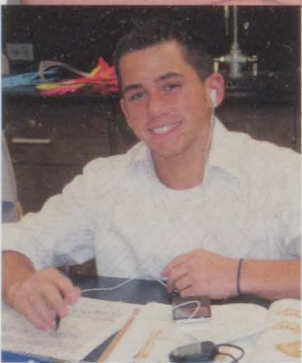

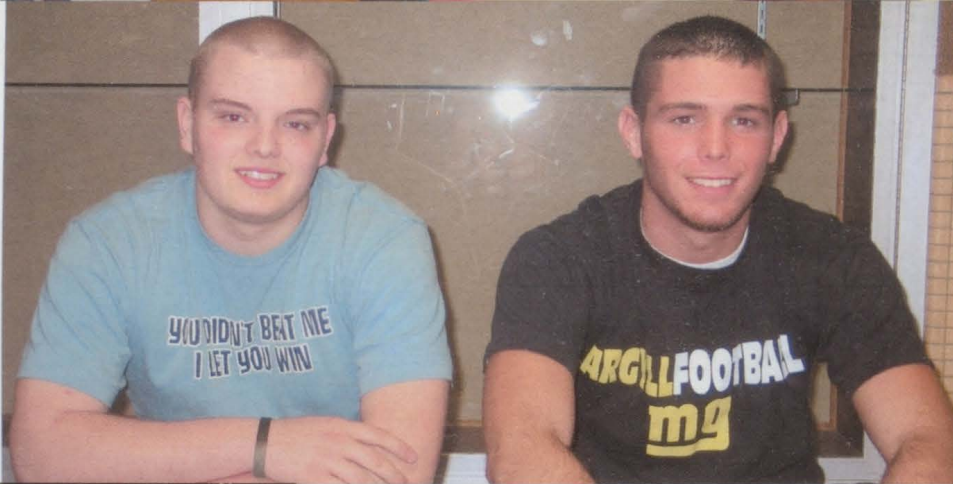

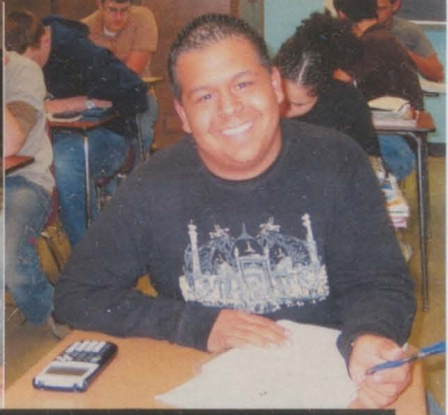

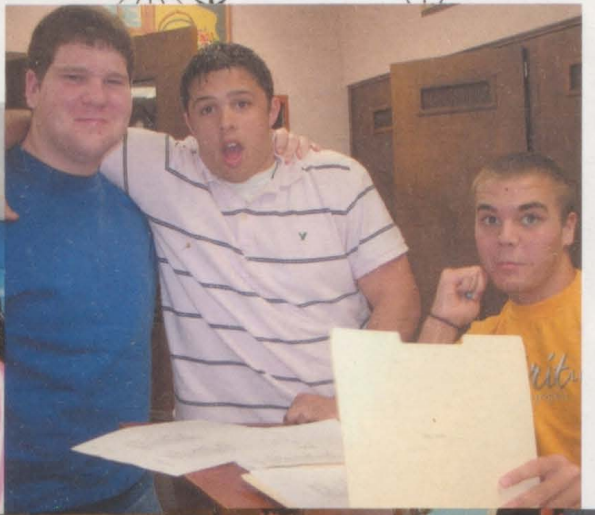

So it's finally here. What we've been waiting four long years for, SENIOR YEAR! We're finally the big fish in the pond, able to swim around without having to worry about anyone nipping at our tails. It's been four long years, and now we're on the final stretch.

The moment we've been waiting for four years to come. It's our last year of high school with even more freedom than ever. This year holds some of our most unforgettable memories such as, prom, spring break, and of course GRADUATION! Most importantly, by now, most of us know what we're going to do after high school whether it's college, military, or joining the workforce. No matter what we choose to do, we are about to jump from our little pond into a big lake, where we are going to be the little fish once again.

Senior Memories

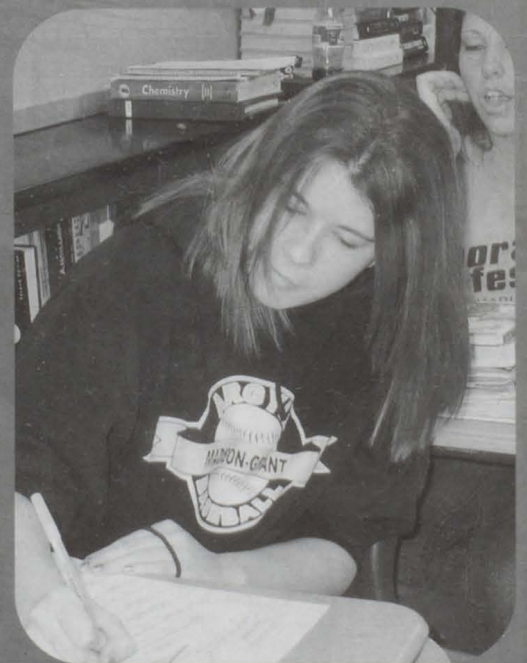

Becky Parker- My best senior memory is when we decorated the senior hallway for Homecoming. That was fun! Stacy Pyle- Spring break was a blast, but the best is yet to come. Daniel Rodarte- My 18th birthday. It was slammin'! Jeff Jessup- Playing football my senior year. We had a good season and it was awesome. Cory Flowers- Going to regionals for the high school bowling team. Brittany Skinner- When I was on medication for my wisdom teeth and chopped my bangs all off really short! My nick-name was 'Dutch boy'! It was so funny! Ashton Idlewine- When Krista and I went to Marion, we hit a racoon on Old Kokomo Road. We thought it was too big to be a racoon, so we went back to look at it and we hit it again. It had flipped onto the other side of the road. Dustin Cisney- My best memory is knowing I can finally graduate and get out of Indiana. Brandon James- Going to Muncie and spending the day hanging out with my best friends. Missie Michael and Lori Harris- Going to X-Fest all day and meeting our favorite band, Disturbed, and crazy trips to Muncie with Brandon. Natalie Hummer- My classes with Mr. Badger. I was fortunate enough to have Mr. Badger three times a day as well as three times in a row-BOTHSEMESTERS! I have learned more about the world, history, government and politics enough to last my entire life! Jessica Turner- My most memorable senior moment is winning Homecoming queen and hanging out with my best friend, Brittany. Nick Chapel- A memorable senior moment was at a cook-out for the football team and when Brett attempted to go on the zip line. He tried three times and fell from 15 feet off the start of the platform. Amber Scott- One of my favorite senior memories is when the whole senior class cheated during homecoming but still won! GO SENIORS! Brandon Carothers- The time Daniel Jenny and I stole Mrs. Herring's chair and raced around the hallway. Alisha Schwentner- Lunchroom conversations and the complete new season of 'Pimp My Ride'. Daniel Jenny- When Brett drove his car into Chapels' pond and Jeff Jessup had to pull him out with his truck. Faith Worl- Late nights at Starbucks. Lynn Runyan- My best senior memory is homecoming. It was fun to show our school spirit and dominate as seniors. Dustin Riggs- One time in early January I was driving to school and it was so foggy out that I almost hit a car, and I probably would have died if I had hit that car. Heather Hopkins- Lunchroom chats with friends and an ongoing joke between Alisha, Brandon, and me. Nathan Meeks- My favorite senior memory would have to be eating lunch with the hilarities of Daniel Jenny. Janice Cunningham- What I mostly did during my senior year was spent most of my time with my boyfriend Tommy. Also, making sure I do my best to graduate. Britney Hickerson- The DIVAS sophomore year but I love them now! Brittany Farley- Hanging out with my best friend Jessica at the basketball and football games. Krystal McDaniel- Spring break, it was awesome! Debbie Dowling- My favorite high school memory is getting up at the crack of dawn every Friday before school and eating at the OutPost with my girls ,a.k.a., "The Divas." Brad Atkins- Breaking laws with Kelsey Payne. Daniel Hiatt- The best memory is first semester when a group of us guys toilet papered Mr. Berryhill's house.

The end of the year brings an overload of work and projects for teachers. Here Senora Melson takes time for a picture while grading some of that work.

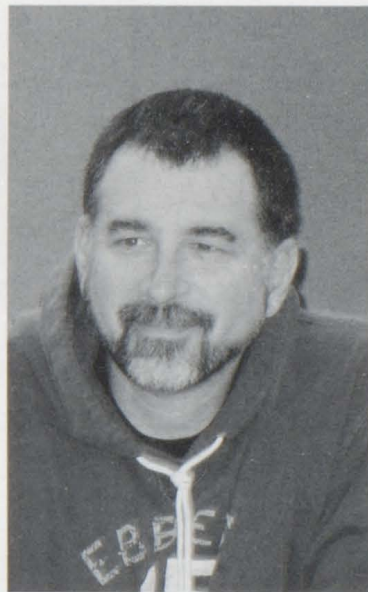

What is the most annoying thing a student has done in your class?

It is annoying when a student talks when I am trying to lead a discussion and then that student asks a question that they should know the answer to if they were listening.
Mrs. Edwards

Annoying is when a student does not complete assigned work or prepare for exams. Then the student can not understand why a failing grade was given.
Mr. Badger

I feel the most annoying thing is when kids in high school can not control themselves during class. They are constantly talking, and picking on other students.
Mr. Tanner

Homecoming

"Homecoming was all right. It could have been better because I should have won king, but "I'm glad Dan won, I guess."

Senior-Matt Short

SHE SAID

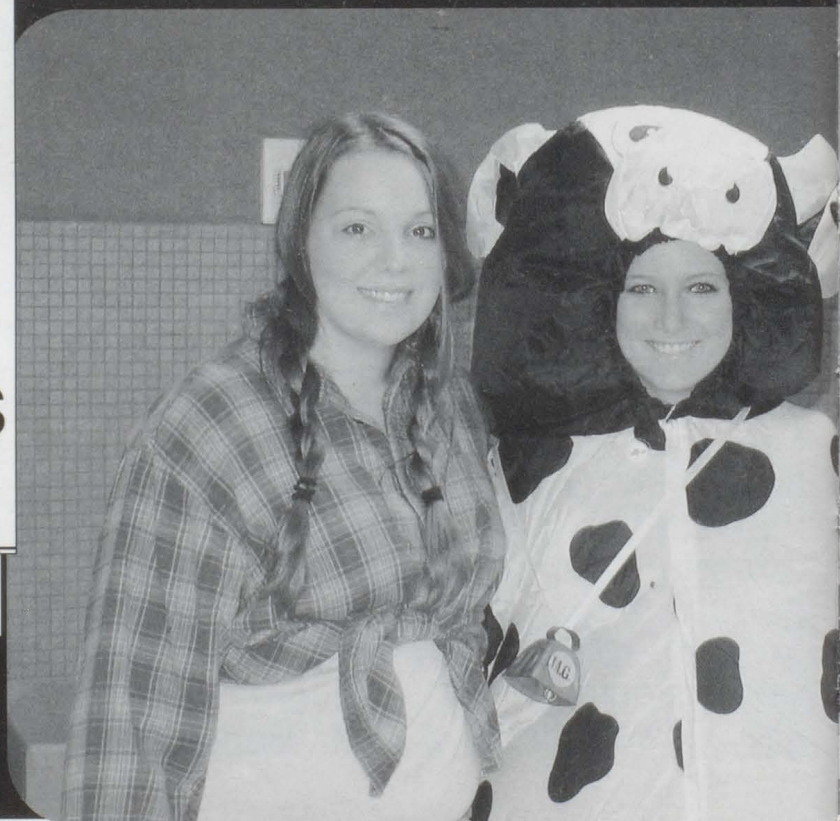

Homecoming was a lot more fun, because we actually knew what we were doing this year! I wish we had powder-puff like they used to have, because it gives the girls a chance to be the big "JOCKS!!"

Anatomy of an Athlete

05-06 athletic highlights

- Wrestling won the Blackhawk Invitational.
- Volleyball won Grant Four, CIC, and Sectional.
- Football won CIC.
- Tennis defeated all other county schools. Andrew Morrical advanced to regionals.
- Katie Croaff advanced to regionals for the girls tennis team.
- Boys track won the Argyll Relays.
- 4X1 team, Schultz, and Jenny advanced. Brennen Ricks, Betsy Floyd, Kayla Wilkins, and Georgia Smithee advanced.
- Baseball team wins first CIC championship in 23 years.
- Jossh Schultz made it to the state championship in track.

The Madison-Grant baseball team prays before their season opener at Yorktown. The Argylls lost this game in extra innings but this was one of only three losses for the Argylls during the regular season.

Small School, Big Spirit

Though only a small school in the midst of Indiana farmland, there is more than meets the eye at Madison-Grant. Argyll athletes exemplify the values of determination, hard work, and leadership. Such values have won the Argylls a highly devoted fan base in the community. The Argylls have given the fans a reason to cheer. Both the Argylls and their fans work hard to bring pride to the Argyll name.

Sophomore Marcus Ellingwood takes it to the hoop in a home game against Frankton. Marcus worked his way into the starting lineup for the varsity team this season.

Freshman Betsy Floyd comes out of the blocks at the Argyll Relays. Betsy helped lead the girls 4X4 team to regionals.

The volleyball team poses for a picture after being crowned sectional champions. The team had a great season and won the Frankfort Invitational, CIC, Sectional, and Grant Four.

Football

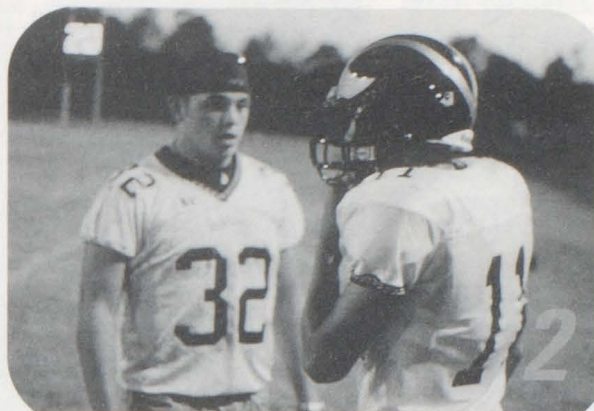

Running With It.

Madison-Grant's football team came into the season with a new coach, a new offense, and a winning disposition. "The new offense was good for us because the backs that we had fit perfectly in our offense. I think it made us a lot harder to stop," commented Derek Stitt on the Argylls' new Wing-T offense that helped lead M-G to an 8-3 record and a share of the CIC title. The Argylls had an impressive year offensively, breaking the record for most team rushing yards in a game and most individual rushing yards in a game. Unfortunately, Madison-Grant's season ended earlier than hoped for with a loss to Eastbrook in the sectional semi-championship.

Head coach Randy Sehy contemplates his next move during his inaugural season with Madison-Grant. Sehy had a successful debut with the Argylls gaining an 8-3 record and a conference title.

The Madison-Grant offensive unit heads to the line of scrimmage. The Argylls had a very talented offensive line this year that helped junior Derek Stitt and senior Jake Stroup both rush for over 1,000 yards on the season.

The Madison-Grant defense prepares to shut down the Alexandria offense. The Argylls defense had a very strong second half to help gain a share of the CIC title.

Volleyball

A year of champion

The Madison-Grant volleyball team had a very successful year during the 2005 campaign. The Argylls finished the season with an impressive 28-5 record. The girls also won the first CIC title since 1991, won the Grant Four Championship, and won their Sectional. Junior Allison Holloway and seniors Jessica Smith and Stacy Russell were all selected for the All-Conference team. Allison Holloway and Jessica Smith were also honored with All-State selections. Jessica also contributed to the North's victory in the Indiana 1A/2A North vs. South game.

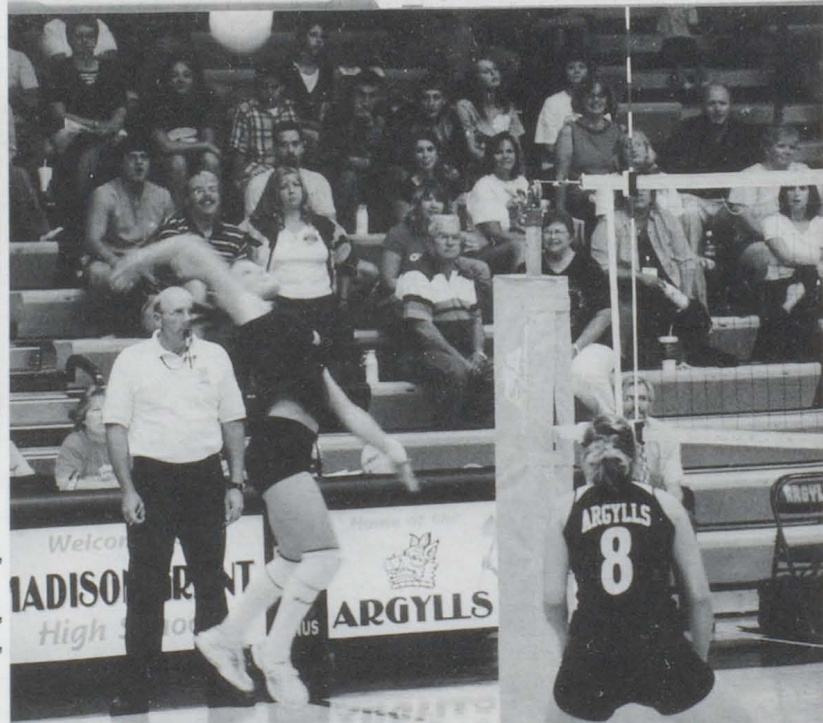

The volleyball team hoists their sectional trophy after defeating Oak Hill in the championship at Madison-Grant.

Cross

Country

keep on runnin'

The cross country team had an up and down year in 2005. The girls had a strong season and were lead by junior Kirstin Rager. Rager broke the school's record for the 4k girls race. The girls finished the season with a 38-40 record and got 4th place at the Jay County invitational. The girls fell just short of repeating last years Grant Four title.

The boys did not have enough runners for a complete team. Despite losing many runners, the boys ran hard and represented the school well.

Kirstin Rager keeps her pace against an Alexandria opponent. This was Kirstin's second year on the cross country team.

Cynthia Cornwell, Cody Barkdull, Katelyn Young, Alicia Jennings

Back Row:

Coach Morgan, Brandon James, Cory Yeagy, Drew Richards, Kirstin Rager, Coach Justus

How is cross country different from other sports?

"Cross country is different from other sports because you don't have four other girls on the court to back you up. You really have to rely on yourself for motivation, and nobody sits the bench."

-Courtney Clem

Why do you run cross country?

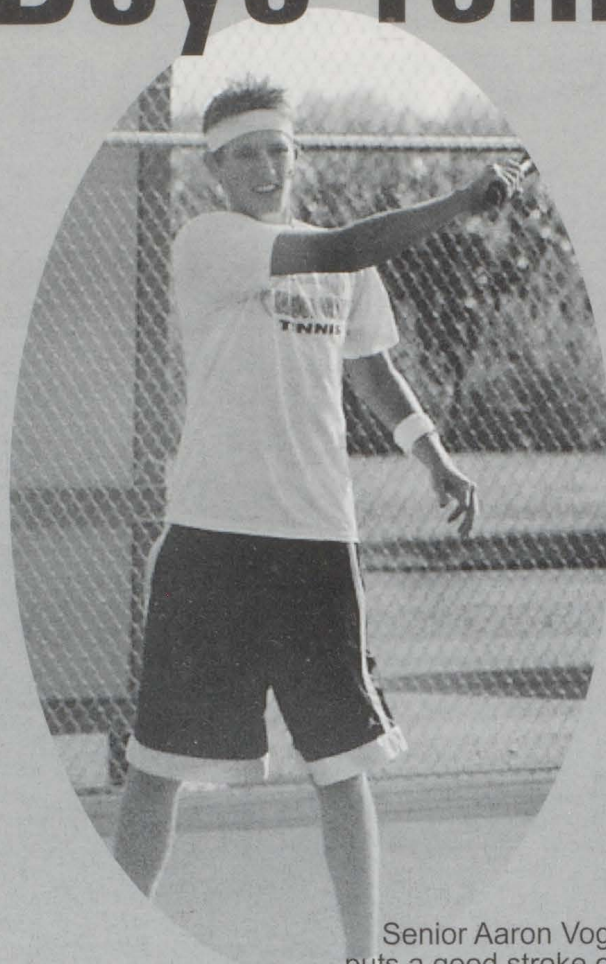

"Running is a sport that pushes you to your limits. It feels really good when I am able to drop my time and better myself."

-Brandon James

Boys Tennis

With a new coach, the Madison-Grant netters continued to improve despite losing four prominent seniors that provided most of the varsity experiences the previous year. The Argylls made improvement throughout the year and ended with an overall record of 4-8 with a 3-3 conference record. Also, junior Andrew Morrical was honored for all conference after capturing a singles sectional crown and advancing to regional.

Senior Aaron Vogel puts a good stroke on the ball during a number two singles varsity match up.

Only one other county school has a tennis program besides M-G. Do you believe that other schools should adopt a tennis program?

Nick Simpson

"Yes, tennis is an excellent sport that you can play the rest of your life."

Derek Pierce

"We have a tennis team?"

Varsity Roster

Singles

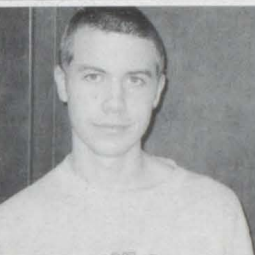

- # 1 Andrew Morrical
- # 2 Aaron Vogel
- # 3 Aaron Tomlin

Doubles

- #1 Robert Shull & Ryne Brown
- #2 T.J. Herniak & Marcus Ellingwood

Junior Ryne Brown gets ready for the opponent's serve to try to contain an early one point lead during his number one doubles match. This was Ryne's first year on the tennis courts for M-G. With his athleticism, he made an immediate impact and found himself a spot with fellow junior Robert Shull at No.1 doubles.

Junior Dane Peters winds up and puts a big smack on the ball during a home tennis meet against conference opponent Frankton.

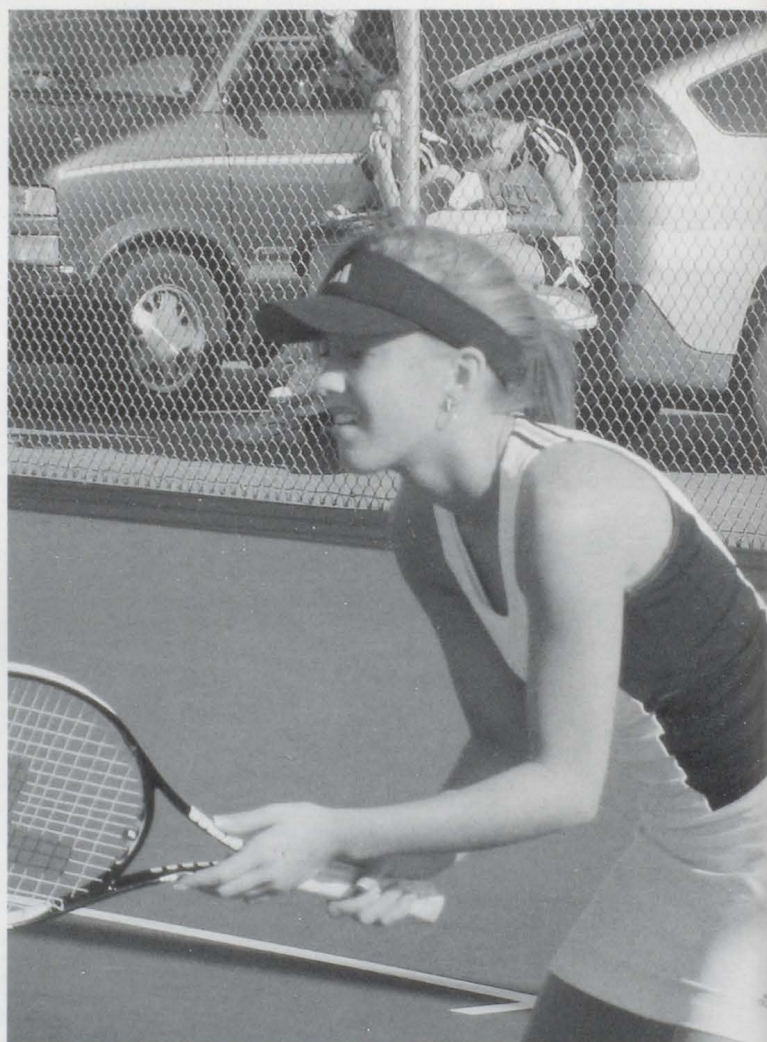

Girls

Tennis

The girls tennis team struggled in 2006. The team had no senior leadership, but a group of juniors lead the team. The season was not a total loss, as the team fought its way to a win. The future of the young team appears to be strong. With a lot of young talent, the girls tennis team should be a force in years to come.

Sophomore Stephanie Powell and junior Tracy Morgan await a serve in their doubles match against Alexandria.

Junior Hollie Wright awaits a serve with a look of total concentration on her face. She appears to be ready for whatever her opponent can serve her.

MG Opponents Get Served

1 Junior Katie Croaff plays a varsity singles match. Katie was the only Argyle to make it to regionals.

2 Junior Becca Carey gets ready to defend home court as she warms up for her singles match.

Junior Allison Lyons approaches an incoming return during a meet against Alexandria. This was Allison's second season on the tennis team.

Say IT Here

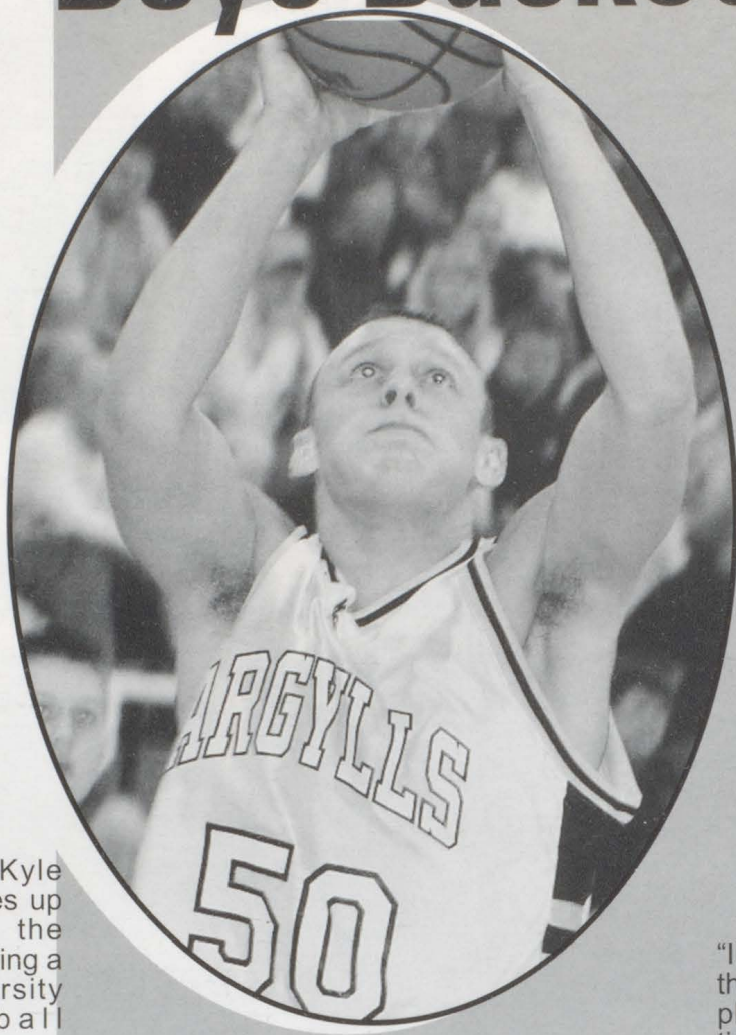

What did you enjoy most about playing tennis?

"I enjoyed practicing outside with the team. They helped me get better. I also enjoyed talking and having fun with my teammates."

Casi Beal
Junior

The Madison-Grant basketball team led by seniors Tyler Sizelove, Brady Turner, Cory Yeagy, and Kyle Pulley finished with a winning record of 11-10 and a respectable conference record of 5-2. The Argylls were the team to beat in Grant county, beating all three other county schools during the regular season by an impressive average of 19 points.

Boys Basketball

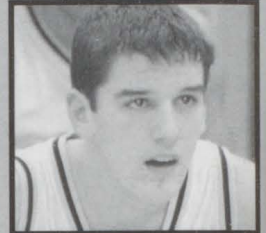

Senior Kyle Pulley goes up strong to the basket during a home varsity basketball contest.

What have you learned from your senior teammates this year?

Marcus Ellingwood

"I learned from the seniors that you have to have fun with basketball and still work hard and compete."

Shawn Yeagy

"I learned from the seniors that you practice like you play, so go hard all the time."

Junior guard Derek Gunning looks to score while being pursued by Mississinewa defenders during the first round of the Grant Four tournament. The Argylls got third place this year after losing to Mississinewa the first game, and coming back and winning double overtime game against the Eastbrook Panthers.

Despite missing this layup, senior guard Tyler Sizelove brings a well rounded game to the Argyll basketball team this year. With his skillfull ballhandling skills and his tenacious defense, Tyler is a great asset to the team's run and gun style of play this year.

Junior Chris Myers reacts as the basketball bounces closely to the sideline during a junior varsity match-up against the Frankton Eagles. The good news is Chirs saved the ball from going out of bounds, but the Argylls lost to the state ranked number two Eagles.

Freshman Bryce Turner breaks away from the pack after playing some scrappy defense and stealing the ball from a Frankton player.

A New Hope

The Lady Argylls had a rough year in 05-06. They finished with 7 wins and 14 losses. However, the team has plenty of young talent for a promising future. Tiffany Colburn was the Argylls only senior this season, so the younger players got a chance to step up and make a difference in big games. Armed with a season's worth of experience, the young team should have new hope for the future.

Junior Kylie Justus dribbles the ball down the court for the Argylls. Kylie played the guard position well and is a three

1 Junior Stacy Houston passes the ball into play. The junior was a leader on a team with few seniors.

2 Sophomore Chelsie Morriscal puts on her game face in a home game as she plays defense.

Junior Amanda Pollen takes a shot at a home game against Alexandria as spectators watch in awe. Amanda was a key member of the varsity team this year.

The Madison-Grant wrestling team had a very successful season during the '05-'06 campaign. They finished the season with a 9-8 record. They won the Blackhawk Invitational which was their first invitational victory in over 30 years. The Argylls finished third overall in the CIC. In the Grant Four, the Argylls had three wrestlers, Shawn Wedmore, Brandon Bolt, and Zach Castillo finish in first place. Daniel Jenny, Shawn Wedmore, and Brandon Bolt all advanced to regionals for the Argylls. Brandon also made it out of regionals before losing in semi-state.

Track and Field

Both the boys and girls track teams had great seasons. The boys team won the Argyll Relays for the first time in school history and placed second place in both the Grant Four and CIC.

The girls team pulled a third place finish at Madison County and also finished in second place at Grant Four and CIC.

Senior Jossh Schultz makes the hurdles look easy at the Argyll Relays. Jossh made it all the way to the state finals with his hurdling skills.

HE SAID

Brett Waller

"You're kidding me, right?"

SHE SAID

"I run track because I love the thrill of competing against the person in the lane next to you. Also our 4X4 team winning at sectionals and moving on to regionals."

Golf

With a new coach and another year's experience for the girls' golf team, the girls earned three victories on the links this year. Losing only two seniors, the girls golf team looks for a successful campaign next year.

The boys team had to battle some rough weather in the spring and played most of the matches in the rain. Despite having to battle mother nature along with their opponents, the boys managed to put together three wins on the season.

My favorite teacher is...

QUESTION & ANSWER

Jordan Presley takes a Biology test of the pig structures and functions in Mr. Martin's class. Each year in Mr. Martin's science classes they dissect things from crawfish to cats.

"It's a tie between Mr. Morgan and Mr. Crosby, because those two together grow the best beards in this school!"

● Patrick Williams, Senior

"Mr. Crosby, because he's funny and doesn't even know it! Also, because he thinks everyone has, "Major...what?!"

● Aaron Vogel, Senior

"Mrs. Stitt, because she's awesome. Mrs. Stitt is a good teacher and knows how to get the point across."

● Brice Moore, Sophomore

Favorite Subject...

"Foods class is my favorite subject because of all the interesting food we learned Shawn Wedmore to make. This class will help Senior me out a lot next year!"

"My favorite subject is Business Foundations because the teacher is straight up gangsta!"

Sean Shields Sophomore

IN BRIEF

Mr. Terry Martin has been teaching at Madison-Grant High School since 1978.

Mr. Martin teaches in a creative and unique way, as many students would say. He can catch your attention with his teaching.

Mr. Martin's favorite part of teaching is the joy of watching kids get turned on by the field of science. Mr. Martin teaches Zoology, Microbiology, and Biology. Mr. Martin's biggest pet peeve about students is "kids who don't try."

Senior Katy Ellingwood puts on her "thinking face." Katy is in art class and enjoys Mrs. Solms teaching and the whole principle of art.

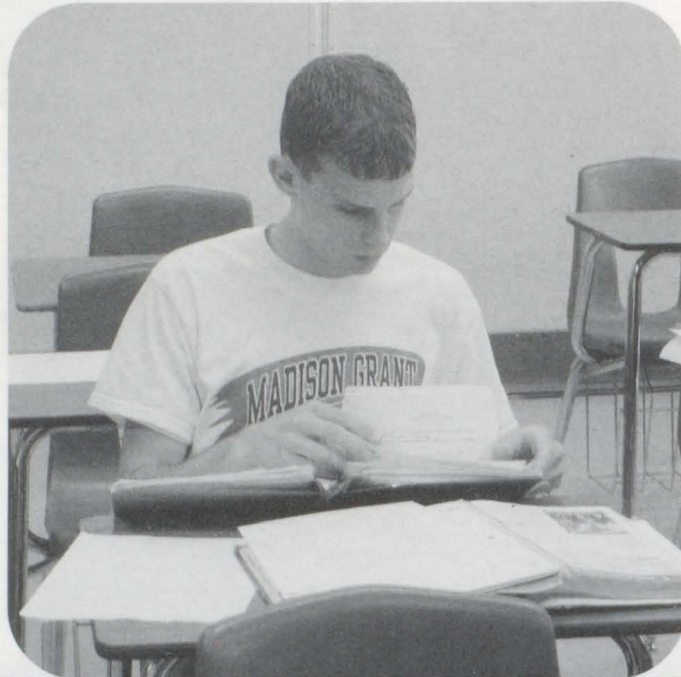

Becky Parker (Senior), Dana Runyan (Freshman), Lynn Runyan (Senior), and Bonnie Parker (Freshman) all enjoy food at the Melting Pot in Indianapolis. The girls are all here as part of a French club trip to the restaurant.

● Stephanie Wilson, Senior

"Mr. Holloway because he makes things more interesting, and he's an easy going person!"

● Stefanie Smith, Senior

"Mrs. Brown because she rocks!"

● Jordan Turner, Freshman

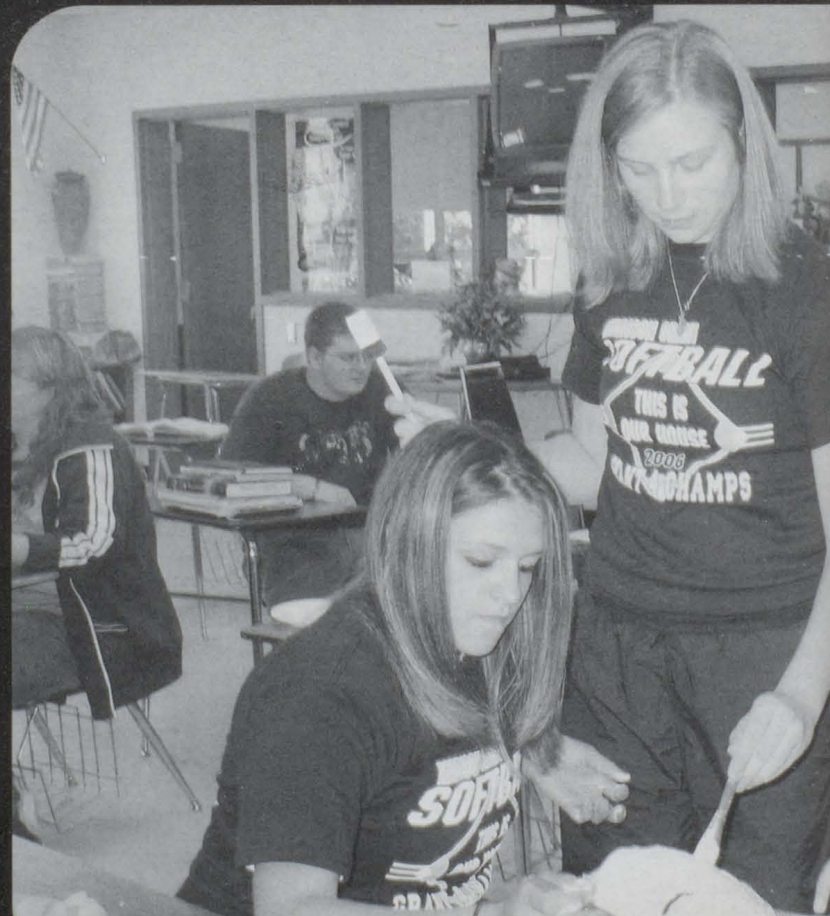

Favorite Subject...

"My favorite subject is welding, because I like to get "dirrr-tay!"

Katy Ellingwood

IN BRIEF

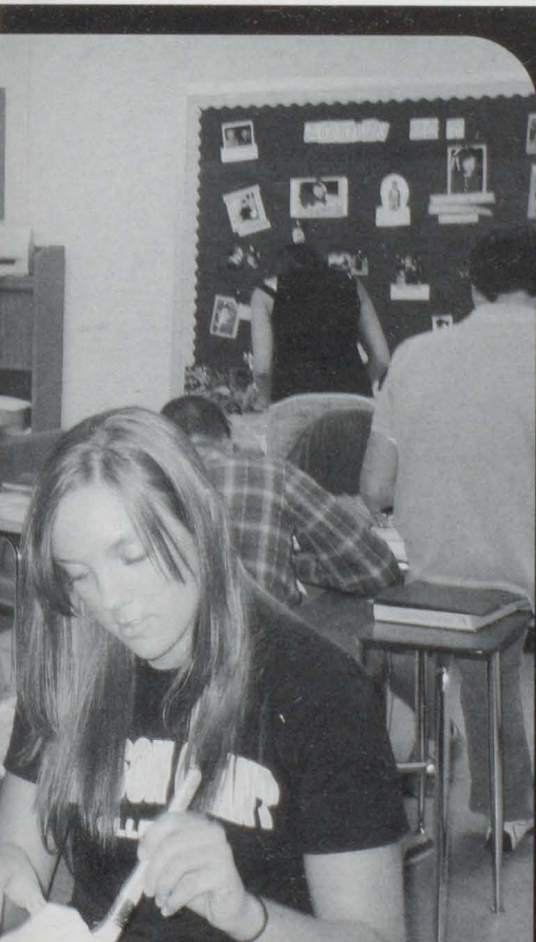

Mrs. Nichole Stitt is Madison-Grant's Chemistry I and Chemistry II teacher this year. This is Mrs. Stitt's first year at Madison-Grant, but it is her sixth year teaching. Mrs. Stitt is the assistant track coach as well. Mrs. Stitt's biggest pet peeve is when "students don't work up to their full potential." Mrs. Stitt loves teaching because she gets to witness first hand "the light bulb turning on in a student's mind with Chemistry."

Service Learning Project

Madison-Grant High School experimented with a new community service program this year for the juniors and seniors. The seniors and juniors have always been stuck at the school with nothing to do while the sophomores and freshmen take the ISTEP. Mr. Robbins, our new principal, implemented the Service Learning/Work Ethic program that many students enjoyed immensely. For the three days that the school was testing, the upperclassmen spent a few hours each day volunteering their time at different places within the community.

Senior Aaron Vogel assisted Ms. Ford at Park Elementary School. "It was fun because I got to go back to elementary school and finger paint with the kids," Aaron stated.

Junior T.J. Eastes volunteered her time at the Summitville Fire Department. She took on the task of rolling up fire hoses and cleaning an old fire truck. When asked if she was in favor of the new program she stated, "It was a lot better than sitting in study hall all day."

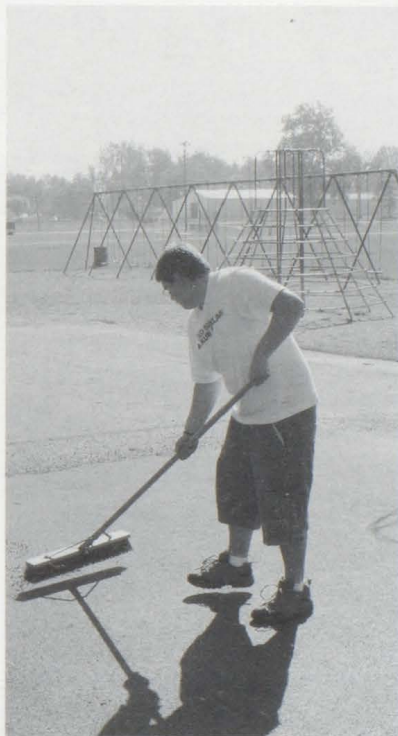

Senior Tricia Thieleke takes a break from assisting the teachers at Park Elementary and eats lunch with the students.

Senior Nick Most paints over the faded lines on the basketball court at Park Elementary School so the elementary students have a nicer playground.

Junior Josh Flowers sweeps the playground off so the elementary students have a nice clean pavement to play on.

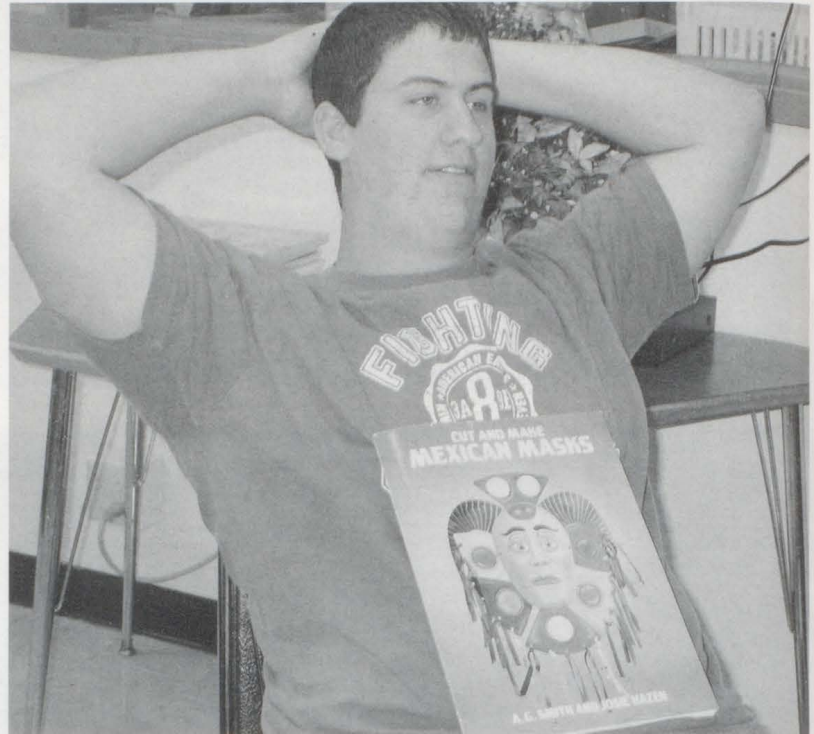

Senior Tiffany Glasser and Ms. Ford share a laugh as they work together during the day.

Student Life

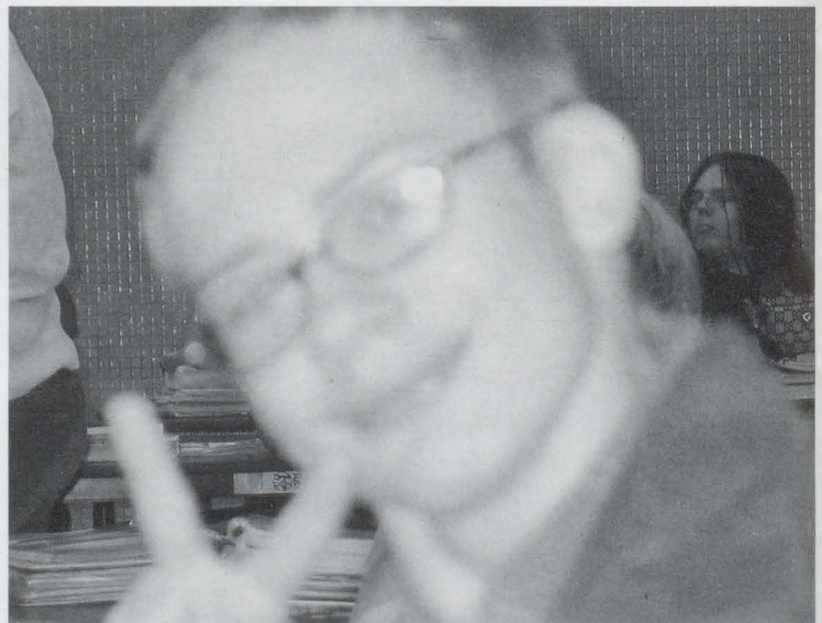

Tasha Neal proves that texting is a part of a student's life at Madison-Grant High School.

Senior Troy Fritz relaxes in Senora Melson's sixth period Spanish III class.

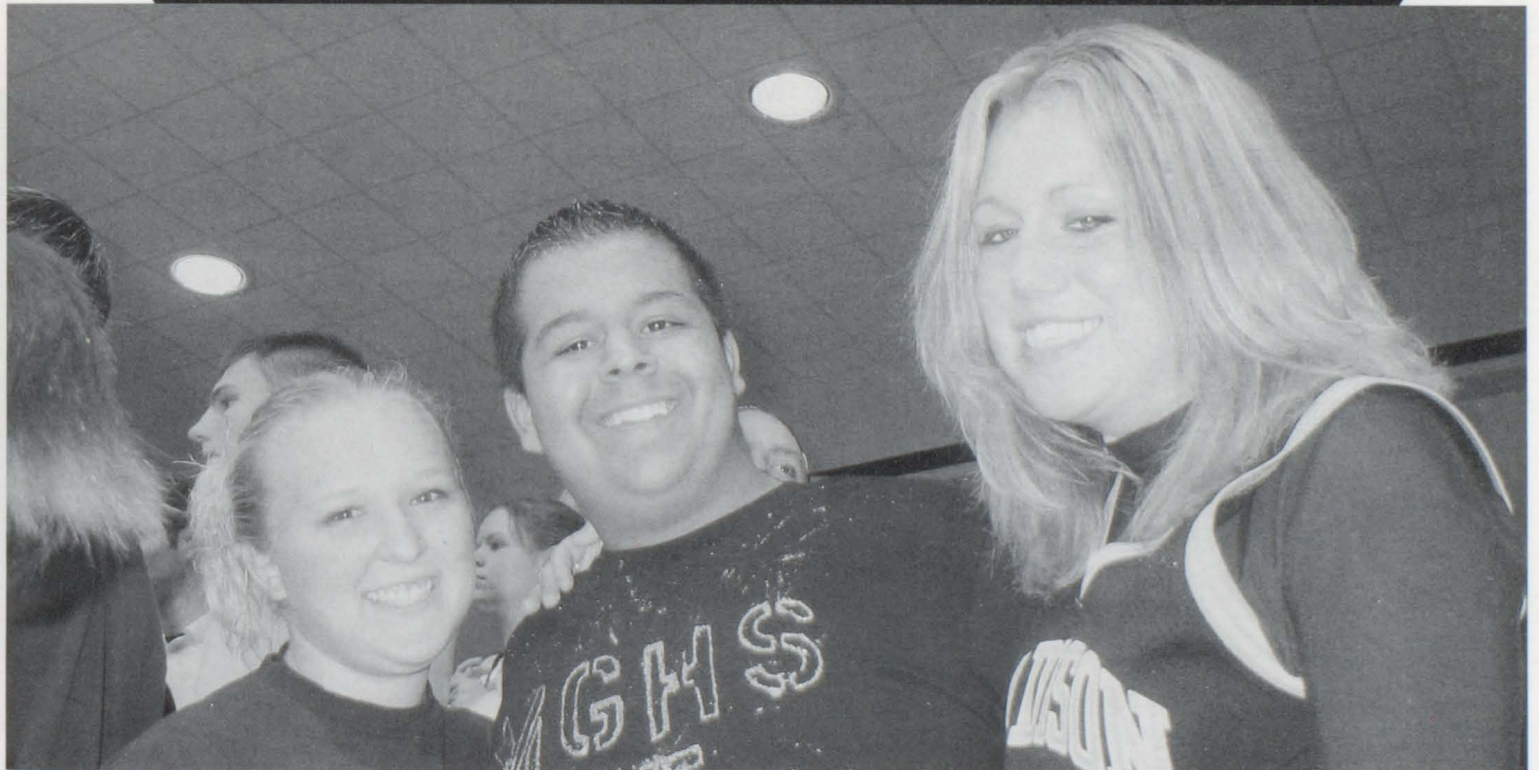

Senior Tiffany Glasser studies her paper as she sits in yearbook class waiting to be assigned a spread.

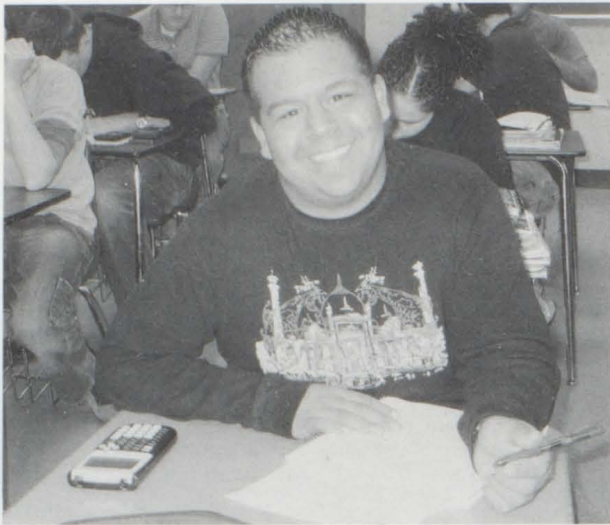

Freshman Bobby Russell sits at lunch showing us that there can always be peace in this school.

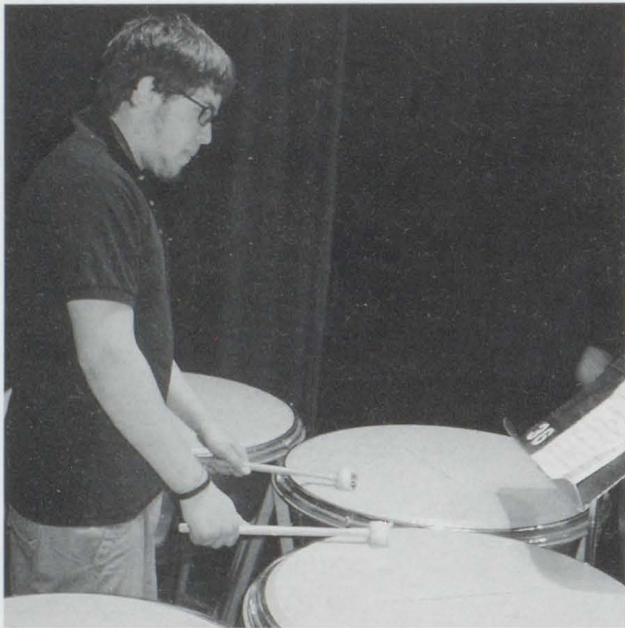

A student's life at Madison-Grant High School is a life-changing experience for each student that steps into school each year. Time is spent on academics, sports, clubs, prom, homecoming, yearbook, and just having fun inside and outside of school. Each activity exemplifies the life of most high school students.

Sophomores Shelby Helping, Breezey Melton, and Grant Idlewine enjoy the fondue at the Melting Pot in Indy. This is one of the many activities that the French Club members participate in.

Juniors Andrew Morrical, Gabe Selby, and Tyler Sullivan work feverishly on their masks in Spanish III.

French Club sophomores are at the Melting Pot in Indy enjoying the food and atmosphere.

Mr. Morgan stands in the gym as a "lady dancing" at the Christmas auction. Many students had a good laugh at the teachers' skit.

Matt and Pat act as Michael Jackson and Elvis Presley at the senior night football game. Attending football games is a big part of many students lives.

Sophomore Kodey Tomlinson ponders about weekend plans in Mrs. Brown's freshman English class.

Student Life Scrapbook

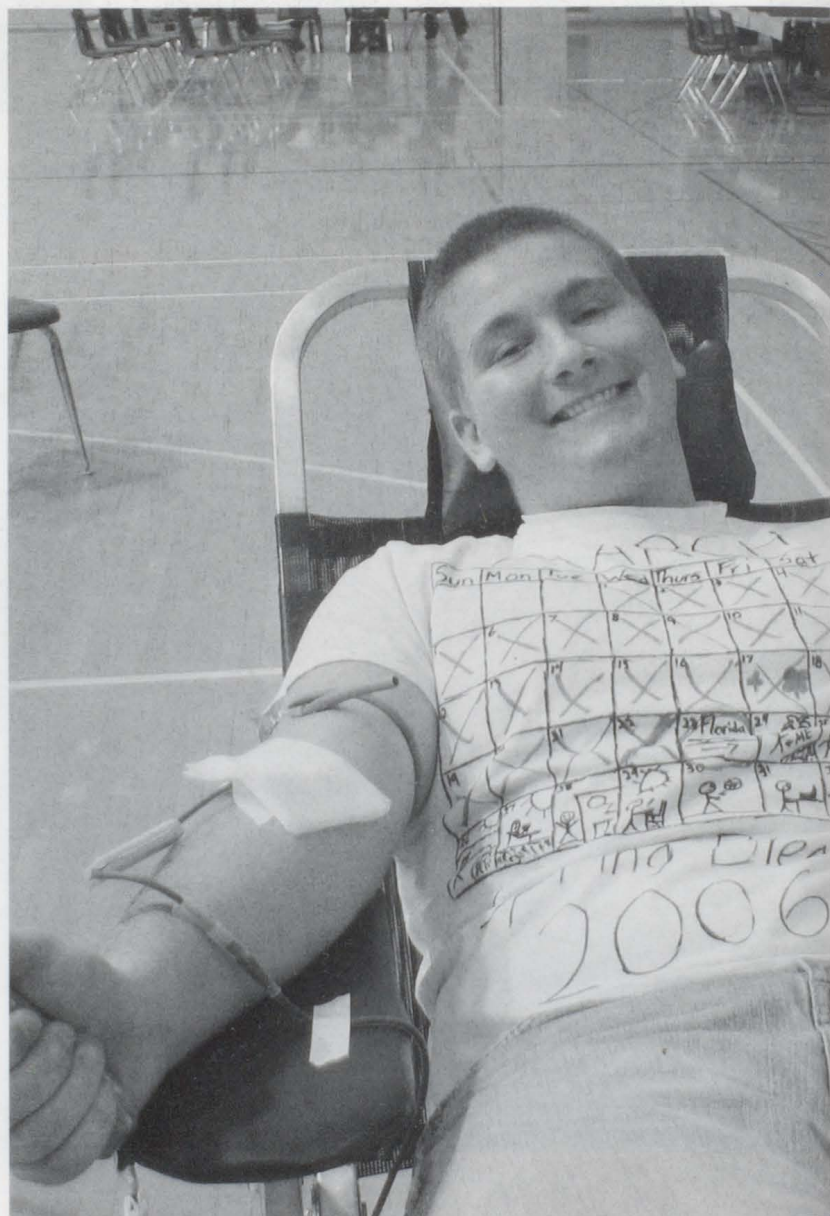

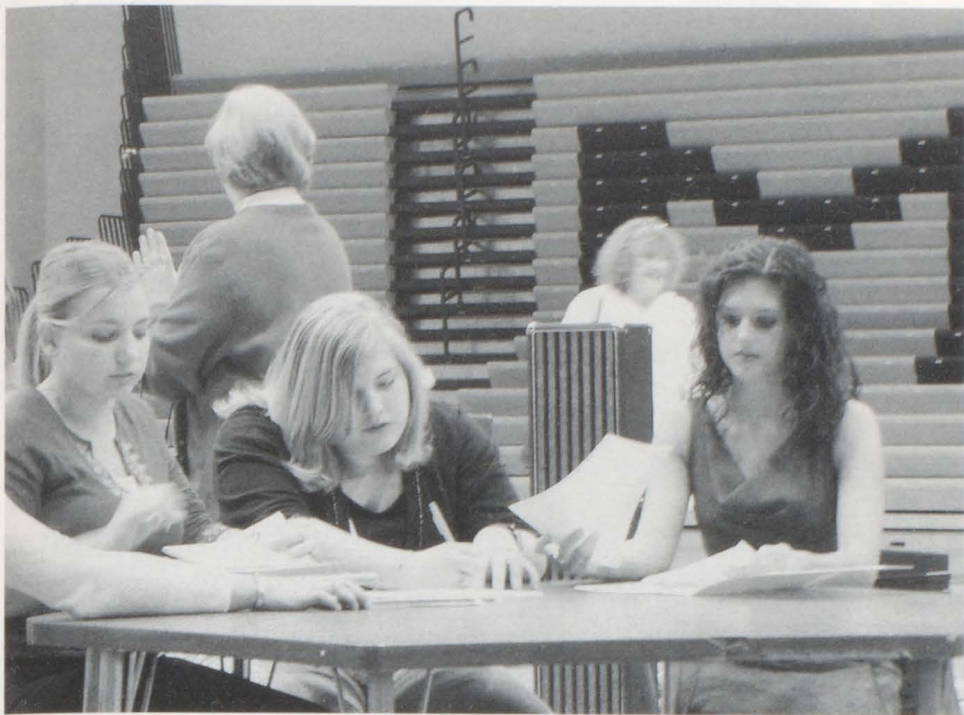

Student Council and NHS Activities

The Student Council and National Honor Society sponsor many activities throughout the school year. Some highlights include the Christmas auction, blood drive, dances, and they pull through for community members in need. These two clubs spend valuable time before and after school to put on these events to help and improve our community.

Mr. Bridwell, Mr. Luthy, and Mr. Morgan can not believe they agreed to dress up as ladies dancing for the teachers' skit.

Seniors Becky Parker, Lynn Runyan, and Jessica Turner take money and make records at the student Christmas auction.

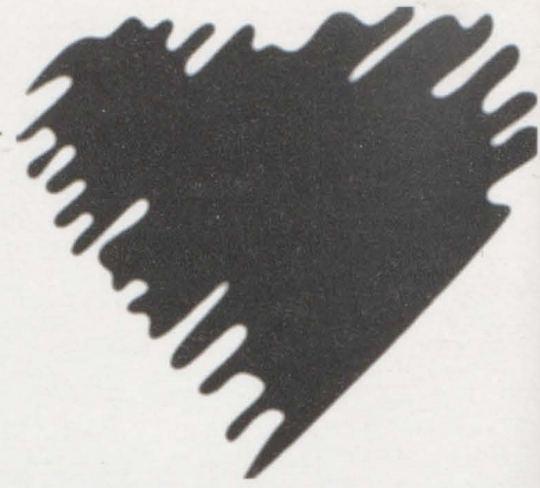

Senior student council member Brittany Farley helps to auction off a C.I.C. championship t-shirt to the student body.

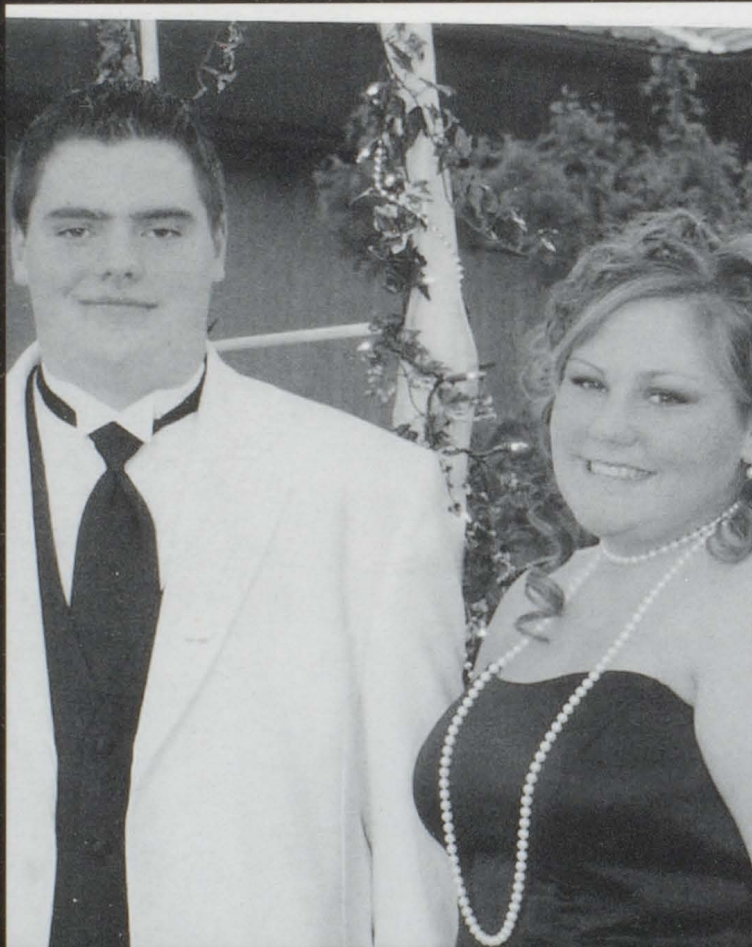

Senior Pat Williams helps the blood drive by giving a pint of blood.

Prom

Prom is the one night of the school year when the upperclassmen and their dates can get dressed up, and have the time of their lives. That is exactly what happened for the students that attended A Night in Paris.

This year prom was held at the Fabulous 105 in Marion. At 11:00p.m. the 2005 king, Matt Houston, crowned Nick Chapel and Stacy Russell, as the 2006 prom king and queen.

Junior T.J. Eastes and her date, Brandon Shepherd pose on the red carpet before they enter prom.

Junior Kailee Lucas and seniors Natalie Hummer, Britney Hickerson, and Daniel Jenny get down to the Cha Cha slide.

Stacy Russell and Nick Chapel dance to "I've Had the Time of My Life" after being crowned prom royalty.

Seniors Brandon Carothers, Tiffany Glasser, Nick Chapel, Holly Gunter, Troy Fritz, Katie Harvey, Tyler Trimble, and Stacy Russell patiently await the announcement for king and queen.

Graduation

After four long years of high school, the big night finally came. This is the last night before the senior class moves on from high school and enters the real world.

Kelsey Payne, Brooke Massey, and Brandon James head to the cafeteria to mingle with friends and family after the ceremony.

Carey Williams stops for a picture on her way to the stage. Carey was the class valedictorian and gave a speech during the ceremony.

Juniors Casey Fields and Allison Holloway walk down the aisle before taking their positions at the stage. Casey and Allison were both ushers for the ceremony.

Chris Simmons and Eric Riser are all smiles after completing the graduation ceremony.

To many students, selecting a college can be boiled down to a user-friendly chart of majors, location and rankings. To these students, selecting a college is like buying a car - a simple matter of comparing options.

Yet don't you think choosing a college should be more? Isn't it about finding the place where you can take the next steps in your lifelong journey of growth? A place where your intellect can be challenged, your faith strengthened and your compassion stretched.

Sometimes
God asks us to stretch.
