DEDICATION

In deep appreciation for the efforts and time spent in planning for the remodeling and enlarging of Red Corner School, we wish to dedicate our yearbook to the members of the Pipecreek Township Administrative Board and to those County Officials who assisted them. Our beautiful school building is a memorial to all of those officials who gave freely of their time and efforts to originate and carry through to completion, plans for our new school. The students and patrons of the Red Corner community deeply appreciate what you have done, and so, to YOU, we dedicate this yearbook. And thanks to,

SMILE AWHILE

Mrs. Curts: Danny, are you hard of hearing?

Danny Mc.: Oh, no, ma'am. I just have trouble listening.

Esther M.: Kent, what is your new brother's name?

Kent E.: I don't know yet. We can't understand a word he says.

Molly Jo B.: Mother, is it correct to say you "water a horse when he's thirsty?"

Mrs. B.: Yes, quite correct.

Molly Jo: Then I'm going to milk the cat.

Wayne O.: Leonard, why do bells ring at Christmas?

Leonard Mc.: Because someone is pulling the rope.

Mrs. Antrim: (teaching the alphabet) Larry, what comes after O?

Larry Davis: Yeah!

David Hahn: What are you running for, David?

David Wilson: I'm trying to keep two fellers from fightin'.

David H.: Who are the fellows?

David Wilson: Tim Gordan and me!

Mrs. Wolf: Pat, wash your hand before your piano teacher comes.

Pat: I did. And I washed my ears on her side, too.
