

SMILE AWHILE

Teacher: Junior, spell "weather"

Junior S.: "W-e-t-t-h-e-r-"

Teacher: That's certainly the worst spell of weather we have had for a long time.

Mrs. E.: Regina, What is the longest word in the dictionary?

Regina: Smiles--there's a mile in it.

Jerry M.: What is the difference between a teacher and a train?

Joe Mays: I don't know.

Jerry: The train says "Choo-Choo" and the teacher says "Don't chew, don't chew."

Tom H.: If the Pilgrims came over on the Mayflower, what did the midgets come over on?

Becky: Shrimp boats.

Gary H.: There were seven birds in the tree. I shot one. How many were left?

Susan B: Six, of course.

Gary: Oh, no. None. I shot one and the rest all flew away.

Mrs. O.: Tim, you told Mrs. Antrim your'e 13. That's not right. Remember, last year you were only six.

Tim O.: Sure. Six last year--seven this year. Six and seven are 13.

Herbert O.: Chuckie, how many brothers have you?

Chuck H.: Three.

Herbert: I don't understand it. Sandra just told me that she had three brothers.

SMILE AWHILE

Mrs. Flynn: Charles, if you eat any more cake, you'll burst.

Charles Copus: Well, pass the cake and get outa the way.

Mrs. Windsor: Virginia, when you eat apples, watch out for worms.

Virginia W.: When I eat an apple, the worms have to look out for themselves.

After Red Corner's game with Frankton, Judith Hill said her prayers that night ending them with:

God bless Mama,

God bless papa,

God bless me,

Rah! Rah! Rah!

Mrs. Cress: Goodness! David, how you look! Did you fall in the mud with your new pants on?

David Cress: Yes, Mother, I didn't have time to take them off.

Peggy Sallee: Stanley, do you know what a pig is?

Stanley: Yes, a pig's a hog's little boy.

Mrs. Antrim: Kay, have you lost another tooth?

Kay Chism: Yes, Mrs. Antrim, and I limp now when I talk.

Choice Bits

A man of words and not of deeds is like a garden full of weeds.

Don't be afraid of wasting time by learning something you are not required to know.

The smallest good deed is better than the grandest intention.

A kind deed is never lost, even though you may not be able to see its results.

There are always excuses if we are weak enough to use them.

A smile on the face is worth two in the heart.

The person who doesn't read books is no better off than the person who can't read.

When a task is once begun, never leave it till it's done .
Be the labor great or small, do it well, or not at all.

The fellow who is up and doing is never down and out.

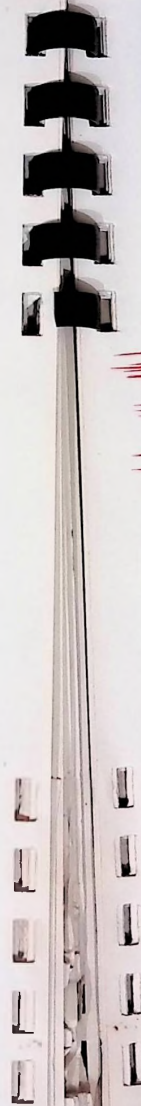

Make a success of today, and you need not worry about tomorrow.

If you keep looking backward, you may go that way.

When you find yourself getting angry, stand still for a moment and smile.

A champion is a fellow who gets licked two or three times a week, and keeps right on calling himself a champion,
