What's Old, is New.

Tunics, bangles, skinny jeans, band t-shirts, leggings, Jelly shoes, layered clothing, tie dye, jean jackets and many other fashion statements have made a comeback this year. Students all around Madison-Grant can be seen sporting one or more of these old trends. To the teachers, these trends take them down memory lane. Some teachers wish they could forget a few of these trends, while other teachers proudly recall their own styles as teenagers. Not only is clothing old and new, but many other things around Madison-Grant are both old and new. We have faculty and administration members, who are both old and new. We have an old gym with a new floor and a new digital message board. We have an old Coke machine with new, healthier drinks. We certainly have old classrooms, but many are now equipped with new computers. We have gone back to the old name of Ne Obliviscaris for your yearbook, but we have a brand new look. Lots of things have changed over the years, but our Madison-Grant spirit has always remained the same.

Students derss up to show off that old styles can still be worn as new.

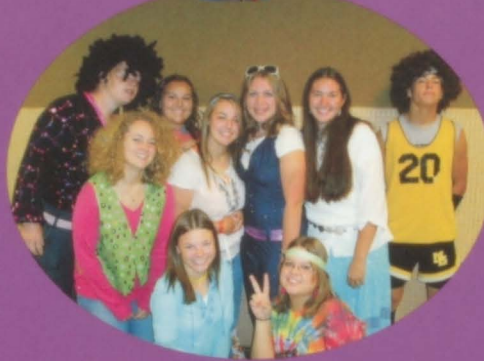

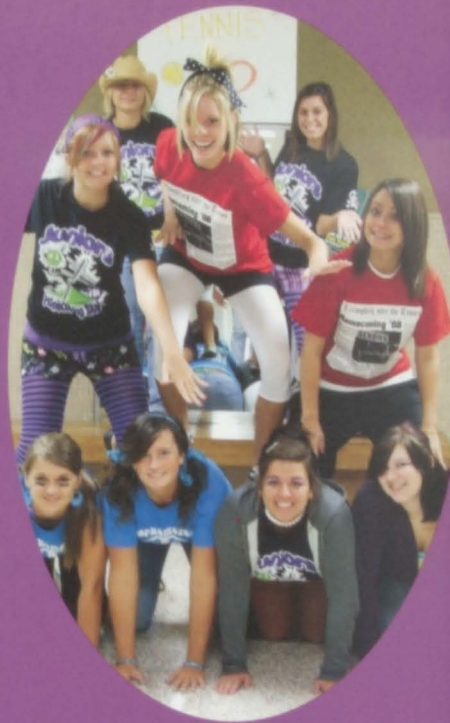

Mrs. Burton, a new addition to our school this year, answers a question during a yearbook meeting. Mrs. Burton became a very well liked teacher this year.

Homecoming 2008

Homecoming is an event that most students look forward to. It is a week, packed with excitement and fun. People like to dress-up, take part in the events, and show their school spirit. You will always remember the crazy memories from Homecoming.

Juniors

Our time has come Class of 2010; we are finally Upper Classmen! Our classes are harder, and our responsibilities are stacking up. However, on the plus side we get front row at the ball games, and we can boss around the freshmen. Two years down juniors, just two more to go!

Sophomores

Finally, you're a sophomore. No more getting pushed around by those crazy upper classmen. You're turning sixteen and here comes the freedom! You can drive to school; no more riding the stinky bus. However, with driving, comes the friends, who want you to take them everywhere and the parents that need you to take your siblings everywhere. The stress keeps adding up.

F a c u l t y

It's another year at Madison-Grant. Some students are working diligently to impress the teachers, and others are doing anything possible to cause havoc for the staff members. Sure sometimes we think they may deserve it, but perhaps everyone should just take a moment to realize that once they were just like us.

What was the most embarrassing outfit you ever wore when you were young?

My most embarrassing outfit was my birthday suit.

It was either the shirt I bought (and wore) that was striped with polka-dots on the collar and cuffs or any of the outfits I wore for spirit days...I always went over-board.

What was your favorite high school memory?

Back in the old days, our school competed in speech meets similar to music contests today. During my junior year, I was surprised when I won the state-wide competition in the humor division.

I have many... but probably my favorite was the trip to Florida to "study" with my Advance Biology teacher Mr. Hale. It was my first trip to Florida.

Making it Happen

The Madison-Grant football team surprised everyone by being the only county school to advance to a regional game. Getting off to a late start, due to the hiring of a new coaching staff, no one expected M-G to pull out a Sectional win.

- 1- Bryce Turner runs the ball.
- 2- Brady James tackles a Tipton defender.
- 3- Neil Stevens carries the ball with ease.
- 4- Bryce Turner and Andrew Stroup receive orders from Coach Engle.
- 5- The M-G offensive line gets ready to dominate the Tipton defense.
- 6- Robert Dickey punts the ball.
- 7- Riley Turner takes a water break.
- 8- Andrew Stroup hands the ball off to Bryce Turner.
- 9- Preston Poore tackles a Tipton player.
- 10- Matt Gilman tackles the a Frankton player.
- 11- Marcus Ryder tackles a defender.
- 12- Jordon Cornelious returns a kick-off.

The Argylls were led this year by their two outside hitters, Sydnie Holland and Cortney Stephens. Other top hitters included Maria Ellingwood and Olivia Stroup. The Lady Argylls will have seven seniors in the upcoming season.

Bringing the Spirit Back

The cheerleaders have done many new things this year. They focused on getting more community involvement and support. The girls made signs for the inside of the school, along with decorating the outside of the school and the telephone poles. Also they put a lot of effort into decorating the stadium during football season. The girls succeeded with their goal of "Bringing the Spirit Back."

BOYS BASKETBALL

78 to 52 was the final score of the Argylls last game of the 2008- 2009 season. The loss came in sectionals at the hands of Guerin Catholic. The Argylls did finish with a winning record and finished third in the Central Indiana Conference. This also was a special year for Coach Chris Smedley, who earned his 100th career coaching victory. Hopefully, there will be more victories to come for Coach Smedley and the Argylls.

Softball State Champs

Our Lady Argyll Softball Team had yet another phenomenal season this year with the first ever State Championship title. Not only was it the first state title for the Argylls, it was also the first girls' state title in Grant County. There were ten returning seniors, who gave our team a big advantage. Some of these girls had been playing softball together for over six years. Madison-Grant was very proud of all of these girls, and we all want to say, Congratulations Girls! You made our school and community proud!

Student Life

The students at Madison-Grant are constantly busy.

Whether it's learning a new lesson during class or participating in a club activity after school, every student has a full schedule on a daily basis. No matter how much of an overload of school work, students find time to hang out with friends and maintain a perfect social life. The life of a student is so precious, so one must take time to live it to the maximum extent.

Foreign Exchange Student

Alina Yakovleva was the foreign exchange student for 08-09 year. She came to America on a scholarship. She taught everyone a lot about her home country, Ukraine. She proved to be super smart and could speak five languages fluently. She was very outgoing unlike most people would be coming into a brand new country. It was very entertaining to hear her mixing up words like "arm" and "leg", and "sore" & "sour."

Alina, the foreign exchange student, is having a great time during the Spanish club field trip to El Chile Poblano in Alexandria

Alina had to graduate early so that she could return to her home in Ukraine. Mr. Smedley and Mr. Nikirk saw her off and gave her a diploma.

Arguys and Gals is a mixed show choir of boys and girls that consists of fifteen of each. They perform at the school, James Dean Festival, local benefits, and Pacers' games. This year is the first year that they participated in competition. This year they participated in competitions at Belmont, Shelbyville, and Homestead.

Arguys & Gals

Sophomore Tiasia Skeens gives some facial expressions while performing.

What was your favorite part about being in a show choir?

Going to competitions, meeting new people, and testing my skills as an individual but also as a singer and dancer.

Junior Olivia Kitts shows off how to rock the concert.

The guys fall over as the driver turns the wheel hard and uncontrollably.

My favorite part about being in show choir was going and competing with other schools.

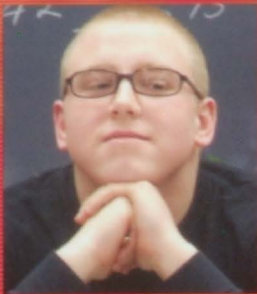

Sophomore Levi Ryan and freshman Bailey Wimmer sing from their hearts at the performance.

The Academic Team is an distinguished team at Madison Grant. Members of this team must have a very high level of brilliance, as well as good thinking skills. These individuals represent our school's and communities' intelligence level. The varsity team had a good year, and the junior varsity team capped off their year with an undefeated season. The Academic Team definitely has represented our school and community well.

Dance Group

A dance group at Madison-Grant, it is a new thing. There have been many girls, who wanted this to happen, but no one ever got it to work. Terena Pulley, the dance team group coach, worked very hard, and the girls were very successful. The girls danced at two football games, every home basketball game, and competed. They held a "mini" dance camp, which eighty-three little girls attended. At competition the girls did very well. They competed as a novice jazz group and placed third in state! This was a very big accomplishment, since it was the first year that the dance group competed.

Class 2009

Courtney Renee Sizelove

"Courtney. Thank you for being the greatest person I had the privilege of knowing and loving. Those days I was with you were my favorite of all.

Thank you for your love and compassion for others and for me.

You have forever changed my life and countless others' lives. Your body is lost, but your actions through Christ live on."

Zach Castillo

"I am like a penny. Not a bad one, a very bright one. Remember, I'll always turn up wherever you find a penny anywhere. In the years to come, you'll pick one up and say, 'There's Courtney!'"

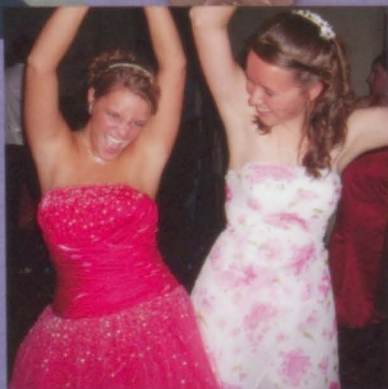

„,In time you'll have a thousand reminders of how much you're loved."

Courtney Sizelove

You shall be remembered always.

Zach Castillo

You shall be remembered always.
